Starship Fantasy: Official Announcement

Starship Fantasy™ Web Site Launch

GLENDALE, Arizona (February 1st, 2013) — Rosenthal Enterprises, INC. formally announces the launch of Starship Fantasy™ a new company dedicated to the distribution of High-End Pinball Parts.

Starship Fantasy™ is proud to formally announce that we are Officially in business as the newest Partner/Distributor of CPR Products. Our new web site is currently being published and should be up and running shortly. The core of Starship Fantasy™ products will be High-End Reproduction Parts from manufactures such as CPR, Pinball Inc., PinCab, and Vishay. Classic Playfield Reproductions (CPR) has not been to any of the Pinball Shows/Conventions in nearly 5 years, so Starship Fantasy has inked a deal with CPR to be its Presence at all the major Shows.

Starship Fantasy™ was founded in 2013 by Larry Rosenthal, the Owner of the original Starship Fantasy Arcade (founded in 1983) in Phoenix, AZ. Since then, Larry has been a dedicated Repair-man of Pinball Machines & Video Arcade Games for the past 23 years, serving the entire Phoenix-Metro area.

Starship Fantasy™ is headquartered in Glendale, Arizona and is dedicated to the distribution of new CPR Playfields, Plastics, & Backlasses; as well as Pinball Inc. Ramps, PinCab Protectors, and Plasma Displays.

For more information, please refer to our web site at starship-fantasy.com

Until our new web site is fully functional Direct Sales of our current Starship Fantasy™ Products can be purchased directly by contacting Larry Rosenthal at: sales@starship-fantasy.com or by contacting Larry direct at 602-228-7333
